

12 people under the age of 35 die every week
in the UK from a sudden cardiac arrhythmia.

COME AND FIND OUT MORE!

Sudden Arrhythmic Death Syndrome (SADS) Awareness Conference

DATE: Thursday 2nd March 2017 TIME: 9.30am – 5pm

VENUE: King Power Stadium, Leicester LE2 7FL

The study day is suitable for healthcare professionals in sports, primary or hospital care – doctors and nurses in cardiology/emergency medicine/paediatrics/sports medicine, GPs, ambulance staff, physiotherapists

OPENING ADDRESS:

Martin Johnson, ex-international rugby player, Patron JHMT

LECTURES AND WORKSHOPS:

- The SADS facts of life
- ECG recognition
- Prize quiz about SADS
- SADS and sports – what is the UK doing?
- What SADS means to me: people affected by SADS conditions
- Screening young sports players
- After a SADS death – what next, for a family?
- Creating real change in your local community

REGISTRATION FEES:

Doctors: £70.00, Nurses, paramedics, ambulance technicians £40.00 and Students £20.00

To book online go to: <http://jhmt.org.uk/sads-conference>

FOR ALL ENQUIRIES PLEASE CONTACT:

Teresa Dalby email jhmt@jhmt.org.uk

University Hospitals of Leicester

NHS Trust

